School Lunch Provision - October Half Term

Food is a basic need and after the rollercoaster of 2020 this need is even greater.

The Parish of Church Stretton, Heather & Batch Coffee House, St Lawrence Primary and Nursery School and Church Stretton Rotary Club have put their heads together over the weekend to determine how the provision of free school meals can continue over half term to the children of Church Stretton and surrounding areas.

We're happy to announce that if your school age child/children is entitled to free meals at any school please head to the Parish Centre at St Laurence's Church in Church Stretton between 10.00am-11.30am every day this week, to collect a lunch bag. Supplies are limited but we'll be able to gauge after the first day numbers more accurately.

If you would like to secure a bag, please email meals@strettonparish.org.uk in advance to reserve a food bag for pick-up.

If you would like to get involved there are two, Covid safe, ways;
Donate the following items to the Parish Centre;

- Snack bars (nut free)
- Individual water/fruit drinks
- Crisps

Alternatively donations can be made to Stretton Foodbank via Stretton Parish;

Bank: CAF Bank Ltd

Sorting code number: 40-52-40

Account name: Church Stretton PCC

Account number: 00090571

Reference: School Dinner

Any money left over from donations will be put towards providing supplies over the Christmas period to local families in need. Thank you to everyone involved in providing this service including the below local businesses and organisations.

Heather and Batch, Mr Bun the Baker, Stretton Parish, Stretton Food Bank, The Rotary Club and for all donations.
