

Dear Parents and Carers,

We have enjoyed another week in school, with further GCSE examinations taking place for Year 11 students. Exams will continue for students after half term, with students expected to wear full school uniform and arrive in plenty of time for their examinations. Thank you for your support with this.

For the remainder of the school, lessons and additional activities continue as normal. On Tuesday this week, a group of students in Year 10, studying the Reformation and its impact, made the most of an excellent opportunity to visit Wenlock Priory to examine the impact of this on the local area.

With the half term holiday next week, we hope that you enjoy a restful break and look forward to welcoming students back on Monday 5th June, for the final half term of the 2016/17 academic year.

Mr. J. Parr

Head of School

ENGLISH LITERATURE EXAMS

Well done to all Year 11s for successfully completing your English Literature exams. This may mean that you no longer have a use for some of the Literature texts that you purchased. If so, perhaps you would consider donating them back to the English Department. I'm sure we could use them. Obviously if you have a sibling lower down the school, it is probably worth you keeping hold of them but otherwise they will be gratefully received.
