Dear Parents and Guardians of Year 10,

As we continue through the GCSE Religious Studies course, it is important that every student has a revision book to support their learning and exam preparation. Having a copy at home makes revision more focused and effective, especially when revising key beliefs, teachings, and ethical themes. With the mock exams approaching, students may find the following revision guide useful as part of their Religious Studies Revision.

This is the recommended revision guide that follows the Eduqas GCSE (Route A) specification and is currently priced at £12.50. We recommend ordering it directly following the link below:

This book is fully compatible with our course and will be used to support in-class revision and exam-style practice.

Thank you for your continued support.

Kind regards,

Miss Sollars
